MARINE CORPS BASE BULLETIN 3574

From: Commanding General
To: Distribution List

Subj: MARKSMANSHIP TRAINING FOR FISCAL YEAR (FY) 2001

Ref: (a) MCO 3574.2J
(b) MCCDCO 3574.1A

Encl: (1) Rifle Sustainment Quota Assignments for FY01
(2) Pistol Sustainment Quota Assignments for FY01
(3) Officer/SNCO Verifier Requirements

1. Purpose. To implement the FY01 MCB Marksmanship Training Program.

2. Information

a. Enclosures (1) and (2) list scheduled rifle and pistol sustainment details for FY01.

b. Proper quota management is essential for MCB organizations to reduce the end-of-year demand for marksmanship training spaces and requires the support of all commanding officers, division directors, branch heads, and officers in charge.

c. Rifle classes will start at 1200 on the first day of snap-in week for rifle sustainment training at the rifle range.

d. Pistol sustainment training will not coincide with rifle sustainment training. The pistol details will run independently and are provided in enclosure (2).

e. Pistol classes will start at 0700 on the first day of the pistol detail week at the tiers on the school range.

f. Rifle or pistol experts that have fired Expert 2 years consecutively (FY99 & FY00) are exempt from firing.

12 SEP 2000

g. Marines must shoot the field firing exercise on Friday for rifle qualification scores to count.

h. POC for all WTBn Range matters is MSgt Pierce 784-5226/5509.

3. Action. Commanding Officers will:

a. Per reference (a), assign personnel to range details as indicated in enclosures (1) and (2) to satisfy annual training requirements.

b. Familiarize all Marines participating in sustainment rifle or pistol details with the coordinating instructions contained in reference (b).

c. Coordinate participation in all firing details with WTBn S-3 Officer.

d. Assign a range liaison SNCO. This SNCO must meet the requirements to perform the duties listed below.

(1) The range liaison SNCO will not be a firing member of the detail in progress. For the sake of continuity and efficiency, the range liaison SNCO will not be changed or replaced during the course, of a firing detail.

(2) Range liaison SNCO's are the representatives of their commands and are responsible for complying with the instructions of the CO, WTBn, regarding the conduct of the Marines assigned to firing details. Range liaison SNCO's will:

(a) Read and understand the contents of the references and this Bulletin.

(b) Report to the range SNCOIC, WTBn, at 1300 the Monday prior to the start of each detail for the range liaison meeting.

(c) Read and understand the current directives published by the CO, WTBn, concerning rifle and pistol sustainment details and the specific duties of a range liaison SNCO. These duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

1 Arrange with the parent organizations for chow delivery. It is also the responsibility of the liaison to issue chow.

12 SEP 2000

2 Coordinate weapons issue and recovery from the parent armory, and ensure that details get to the range on time.

3 Ensure shooters have the appropriate equipment and the equipment is serviceable.

4 Deliver Limited Technical Inspection Sheets to the WTBn Range Unit SNCOIC in a timely manner, NLT the first day of sustainment training.

5 Maintain shooter accountability upon arrival at the range and throughout the training day.

6 Notify WTBn and the parent organization S-3's of weapon drops from details as soon as possible.

7 Notify the WTBn Range Officer of conflicts or other problems between-range personnel and shooters.

8 Make necessary phone calls for detail personnel to the parent organization or other parties. Individual shooters will not be permitted to place phone calls from WTBn without valid reason/permission.

9 Check-in daily with the SNCOIC Range Unit, WTBn, prior to the first relay starting at the 200-yard line, and later when relays reach the 500-yard line.

10 Maintain good order and discipline with your respective unit members during the firing detail.

11 Report to organizational commanders when Marines are dropped for cause from the range detail by range personnel.

12 Comply with instructions given by range personnel, during the course of the detail.

e. Assign verifiers (officers and SNCO's only) per enclosure (3) and submit names to the CO, WTBn (Attn: S-3) at the liaison briefing prior to the detail. Verifiers are required to report to the pit NCOIC by 0615 everyday, from Tuesday through Friday of the firing week.

f. Ensure shooters maintain weapons in Condition IV unless the individual is snapping in, firing, or cleaning weapons at authorized locations. A Condition IV weapon is:
